FOREWORD

We, the annual staff of '60 are proud to present the 1960 Bulldog. We have tried to give some idea of the most important activities of the past year. We hope, as you look back through these pages, that they will always be a source of happy memories.

All sudden he hath ceased to sing
Hushed in eternal
slumbering,
And we make moan
that he is gone.

Could he speak out, we doubt not he
Would turn to us full tenderly,
And in the old melodious
voice Say: "Weep so, without rejoices."

DEDICATION

To a man of such deserving great honor we sincerely dedicate this 1959-60 yearbook to Vince Vigil. His death has brought on a morbid loss.

He was born May 19, 1929, in Valdez, Colorado, in which he had been a life long resident. He had served our community as scout master for five years and taught three years at Sarcillo and two years at Weston. He attended Trinidad Junior College for two years, then completed his four years at Adam State College. He received the Award of Merit for being an outstanding student at Adam State College and graduated with a B. A. degree. While serving two years in the United States Army he was an instructor for the Ski Troopers.

To a man of high esteem we shall certainly miss his presence and position that he has occupied.

His is a place in this community that shall never be filled.

More important than winning the election, is governing the school. This is what the students roared to the SCHOOL BOARD.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

Education, as you will soon realize, is a gradual, never ending process. Our ultimate goal is to be confidently certain that our students and graduates are receiving, and have received, the maximum educational requirements to best suit them for their chosen fields of endeavor and future life.

To the graduates who will be leaving Primero High School this year, I wish the fullest and most enjoyable future. To this end I hope our schools have played an important part. It is most gratifying to the educators of any community to learn of the advancement and success of the students with whom they were once closely associated. Your fields of endeavor may vary greatly, since you each possess individual personalities with various desires and goals in mind. Some will further their education, while others will branch into the business world and establish homes. I sincerely hope that regardless of your vocation, or avocation, you will constantly bear in mind your responsibility to society, reflecting credit and pride on your family, community and school.

Respectfully,

Reuben Gutierrez, Superintendent

Let us be thankful - not alone because
Since last our universal thanks were told
We have grown greater in the world's applause,
And fortune's newer smiles surpass the old.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

We wish to express our sincere thanks to the annual staff, and the sponsor for the diligent effort in which they have performed in making the 1960 "Bulldog" the tremendous success which it is. We feel that the educational experiences that have been yours in planning and assembling this material will be of inestimable value to you in the future.

Students of this year's classes will certainly find that future reference to the "Bulldog" will bring back memories that can only be accumulated in a document of this type.

To this year's graduating class goes our earnest wishes for a successful and gratifying future. We hope that each of you will realize the ambitions, dreams and aspirations that you have developed while a student at Primero High School. May you always have a belief in the worth and dignity of your fellow man and gauge your life accordingly.

Sincerely yours,

Lloyd DeHerrera
Principal

PRICE OF SUCCESS

All of us have to pay for what we want. If we want to build skill, we must pay for it in hard work.

Most of us cheat a bit on the work we do; then we feel hurt that we do not win the goal we want. If we do not pay the price, we do not win.

Hard work does not hurt a man. It can be good for him if he knows it is the means to the end he seeks. If he has a goal in mind, he will work hard to gain it.

LUCK

Some men say their luck is all good and some say it is all bad. Good or bad, though, the luck you get is what you make.

You do not have to take all that luck brings you. You can choose your luck, you know, for you make the luck that comes to you, bad or good.

Good luck seems to go to those who know they can do things. What they call luck is just good work. Good luck to you, and that means good work, too.

Tomorrow, and tomorrow, and tomorrow,

To the last syllable of recorded time; . . .

SHAKESPEARE

My heart leaps up when I behold
A Rainbow in the sky;
So was it when my life began;
So is it now I am a Man;
So be it when I shall grow old,
Or let me die!
The Child is Father of the Man;
And I could wish my days be Bound each to each by natural piety.

In the practical as in the theoretic life, the man whose acquisitions stick is the man who is always achieving and advancing, whilst his neighbors, spending most of their time in relearn ing what they once knew but have forgotten, simply hold their own.

Keep the faculty of effort alive in you by a little gratuitous exercise every day. That is, by systematically ascetic or heroic in little unnecessary points, do every day or two something for no other reason than that you would rather not do it, so that when the hour of dire need draws nigh, it may find you not unnerved and untrained to stand the test.

SONG OF THE OPEN ROAD

Afoot and light-hearted I take to the open road,
Healthy, free, the world before me,
The long brown path before me leading wherever I choose.
Henceforth I ask not good fortune
Henceforth I whimper no more, postpone no more, need nothing,
Done with indoor complaints, libraries querulous criticisms,
Strong and content I travel the open road.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

When I have sung the sweet songs
and the sad,
The songs of magic drifting
from above,
The trumpet songs that shout
across men's souls,
The sleep-song, breasted softer
than the dove,
Still there will be one song I have not sung -
The song you love, the song you love.
